

GENERAL MOTORS INSURANCE ADDITIONAL BENEFITS

YOUR POLICY IS REVISED AND THE FOLLOWING IS ADDED:

1. Additional Benefits. From time to time we may provide you or allow others to provide you, or another person insured under this policy with certain Additional Benefits. Any Additional Benefits will be made available through benefit programs that detail the available benefit and the terms of the program. If one (1) or more of our benefit programs apply, you or another person insured under this policy may be eligible to receive benefits specific to that program depending on the terms of the program and the Additional Benefit provided.

The Additional Benefits may take the form of “Promotional Benefit” programs or “Premium Assistance” programs as follows:

- A. “Promotional Benefit” programs are programs where we provide, or make available, goods and services, devices, equipment, GM Rewards points or other points, memberships, merchandise, rewards, gift cards, redemption codes, coupons, vouchers, special offers, classes, seminars, or other benefits or items of value, or make charitable contributions, donations, or gifts on your behalf; and
- B. “Premium Assistance” programs are programs where all or a portion of the insurance premium is paid on your behalf by one (1) or more participating third-party payors, such as auto manufacturers, financing companies, auto dealerships, or other third parties that have established a program with us. Premium Assistance programs may be subject to a cap on the amount that will be paid under the program, as predetermined in the program terms. If the insurance premium is more than the cap, you must pay the remaining amount after the Premium Assistance benefit is applied. You agree that upon cancellation of this policy during the promotional period set forth in the Premium Assistance program terms, or if you no longer meet the program terms, the unused portion of the Premium Assistance will be returned to a third-party payor and no portion of the Premium Assistance benefit will be refunded or due to you. However, if you have paid for additional coverage or have paid insurance premium above the Premium Assistance cap, upon cancellation, refund of that additional premium paid will be made to you pursuant to the refund terms stated in your policy.

We are under no obligation to provide any Additional Benefit program, and you and others are under no obligation to pursue any Additional Benefits. By electing to participate in an Additional Benefits program, you agree that we may share information with our affiliates and third parties involved in the program to verify eligibility and administer the program. The Additional Benefits may be provided in any form.
